Many people enjoy living in a big city because they think life is more exciting there. However, I come from a small village and in my view, there are lots of benefits. The main reason I prefer village life is because it is very quiet, so I always feel calm when living here. Every morning, I am woken up by the chirping of the birds, then I open the door to take a deep breath of the fresh air. Another reason is that the air is so fresh and clean. We have more green spaces and bigger gardens, too. There are not so many vehicles in the street; therefore, it is not usually crowded during rush hours. The fewer the vehicles are, the less dust and smoke they emit. In addition, I think the people here are friendlier. They live in a simple way with daily jokes, and normal expectations, so they rarely get angry with each other. Personally, I'm interested in wildlife photography, so the countryside is perfect for me.
